

Designating the names of villages within Myingyan Township

The villages near and at the surroundings of Myingyan Degree College are included within Myingyan Township and they are the suburban villages. Some villages are located as group village (village tract) through combination of the adjacent small villages. Some villages are situated as the separate small villages.

The fyu-wa Group

The small villages of The-fyu-wa Group are located towards the north west direction of Myingyan Degree College. Formerly, They were situated on the side of Ayeyarwady River bank, and then due to the sliding of river bank and changing of riverine route the people migrated to the greener pastures and so small group village came out. The-fyu-wa group consists of twelve villages, namely 1. The-fyu-wa Ywarmagi 2. Kan-thar-ei Ywar 3. Zi-gon Ywar 4. Let-pan-bin Ywar 5. Lei-ein-Zu Ywar 6. The-nauk Ywar 7. Fayar-lei-kon Ywar 8. Kyi-bin Ywar 9. Pyidawthar Ywar 10. Thayet-kon Ywar 11. Shar-kon Ywar and 12. Kain-myauk Ywar.

1. The fyu-wa Ywarmagi'

The fyu-wa Ywarmagi' was formerly located on the side of Ayeyarwady River bank. It is a village to be moved for seven old village. It seems to be named as " The-fyu-wa Ywar the white sand banks on the side of the river bank."

2. Kan-thar-ei' Ywar

It was formerly called Ok-kyin Ywar. Based on performing of the brick work at the lands of (Chinese U Thaug Sein,) it was called " Ok-kyin Ywar " (Brick- works village). It is known that it was named by Mingun Tipitaka Sayardaw U Vicitta as a sign of taking good omen so as to be lucky ,peaceful and prosperous" because that small village was frequently moved at every time of the river bank sliding.

3. Z'i-g'on Ywar

It is known that it is called Z'i-g'on Ywar because the village is founded , buying a parts of jujube tree garden" of U Kyaung Maung , a great practitioner of indigenous medicine from Pyawginthar Ywar.

4. Let-pan-bin Ywar

It is known that " with reference to the growing of a large number of the red silk cotton trees within the village, it seems to be called as Let-pan-bin Ywar."

5. Le'i-ein-zu' Ywar

It is known that it is called " Le'i-ein-Zu' Ywar because the village comes out through residing of four families separately" when moving the village due to the sliding of river bank.

6. Th'e-nauk Ywar

It is called The-fyu-wa Anauk Ywar because it is located at the western part of Th'e-fyu-wa Ywarmagi'. It is known that it is called " The -nauk Ywar" Through naming and saying abbreviation or acronym.

7. Fayar-Lei-kon Ywar

It became a village through migration to the vacant place north of The-nauk Ywar when moving due to the sliding of river bank. In that place, there was a monastery of U Yevata since before the existence of monastery of U Yevata since before the